

CRUSHING BLOW . . . End Dwight Peters (No. 19) rushes into end zone to cover a blocked kick which gave his team, the Beverly Hills Normans, the winning margin as they defeated Torrance 12 to 7 last Friday. Others rushing to get the ball are Guard Ron Altara, Center Skip Marson and End Mark

Goldberg. Tartar Glynn Boyce, who had been kicking the ball, surveys the scene from the ground while Bill Crawford, an unidentified Norman and Aramis Dandoy rush in. Beryl Jones also watched the proceedings from the ground (behind Dandoy). (Herald photo).

Your Backer For Leuzinger

While the Tartars are visiting Leuzinger tomorrow evening, Redondo will be at El Segundo, Long Beach Wilson will be at Inglewood and Santa Monica will be at Beverly Hills. The Long Beach Wilson-Inglewood game will not be a league game.

Unbeaten Camino Eleven to Meet Cal Poly Next

El Camino's Warriors will be back on the home field Saturday night for a practice game with Cal Poly of San Dimas. The game will start at the El Camino Stadium at 8 p.m.

The undefeated Warriors should win the tussle with the Broncos at their own terms, although Coach Duane Whitehead, ex-SC star, has some heads-up ball players on the Poly squad. Using a split-T offensive, the Broncos have quarterback Howard Killo, and halfbacks Tino Fabbin and John Roger to make it work with passing while fullback Dick Kelley is a hard punger for yards through the middle. Center John De Sautels is back with the Broncos. He was named on El Camino's all-opponent team last year.

INTENSIVE FARMING

Despite a high and mountainous interior, Costa Rica has more than a million acres under cultivation, more than six million acres of grazing land.

Leaving their will to win in Torrance, the Tartars traveled to Beverly Hills last week to finish off any hopes they might have had for Bay League honors in the 1950 pigskin parade. Leading the Normans 7 to 0 until the final minutes of the contest, the Tartars stumbled and fell to the tune of a 12 to 7 defeat.

With only a few minutes left to play, Beverly Hills received the ball on the Torrance one-yard line as the result of a 15-yard penalty for personal fouling, and quarterback Ronnie Knox plunged through for their first score.

Scant seconds later, the Tartars were forced to kick on fourth down from their own 24-yard line. Blocking Glynn Boyce's kick, end Dwight Peterson chased the ball into the end zone and fell on it for the final tally.

Statistically, the Tartars appeared to have the game all their own way. However, the payoff is on the touchdowns, and they failed to punch thru all but one TD.

The Tartars, who won their first game against Glendale, however, have now dropped two league tilts—almost too much for anything in the first division considering the kind of teams the big schools like Santa Monica and Inglewood are throwing into the field.

As usual, Torrance's backfield star, Aramis Dandoy, looked terrific on both offense and defense. Coach Rex Welch shook up the backfield a little for last Friday's game and it seemed to speed it up a lot. Dandoy was moved into the quarterback slot for a good share of the offensive game and did well.

He carried the ball a total of 20 times for a net yardage of 147 or an average of a little more than 7 yards per carry. He also passed three times, completing one for 33 yards.

HEY, THERE! . . . Halfback Art Stauffer, (No. 4), knocks down a pass intended for Glynn Boyce late in the third quarter of last Friday's game at Beverly Hills. Quarterback Bill Crawford had heaved the aerial from the Normans' 40-yard stripe in an effort to increase the seven-point lead—he should have connected, for the Tartars could have used another six or seven points. ## Warriors Romp to 27-7 Victory Over Bakersfield Junior College

Coach Amby Schindler's El Camino footballers rolled to their fifth consecutive triumph over a strong Bakersfield eleven, drubbing the previously unbeaten Renegades 27 to 7 in a Metropolitan Conference tilt played on the loser's turf last Friday night. It was the Warriors' third league victory.

The blue and grey pigskinners completely dominated the contest, scoring once in the second quarter to take a lead they never relinquished. They tallied twice more in the third period and added their final touchdown in the last quarter. Bakersfield pushed over their only score late in the fourth period.

Camino outgained their northern hosts in total yardage by a large margin, and they held

TORRANCE HERALD Sports

As the Herald sports editor said a couple of years ago, you'll need no Indian guide to get to the Leuzinger game tomorrow night to watch the Tartars meet their third Bay League opponent. He explained it like this—and they haven't moved the school—go north on Prairie to Rosencrans and turn left at Rosencrans and proceed westerly for four blocks. Zingo! there you are. The stadium is at 4118 Rosencrans boulevard. Game time is 8 p.m.
